THE PENN

Volume VII

June 6, 1950

Published by the members of
THE SENIOR CLASS
PENN TOWNSHIP HIGH SCHOOL
R. D. 6, Butler, Pa.

FOREWORD

The publication of this annual marks the nearing close of the 1949-50 school term. In these pages we have tried to capture for you the thrills and joys of life at Penn High. Today the book brings back happy memories of only a year past. In the future it will be a cherished memory of a year never to forget.

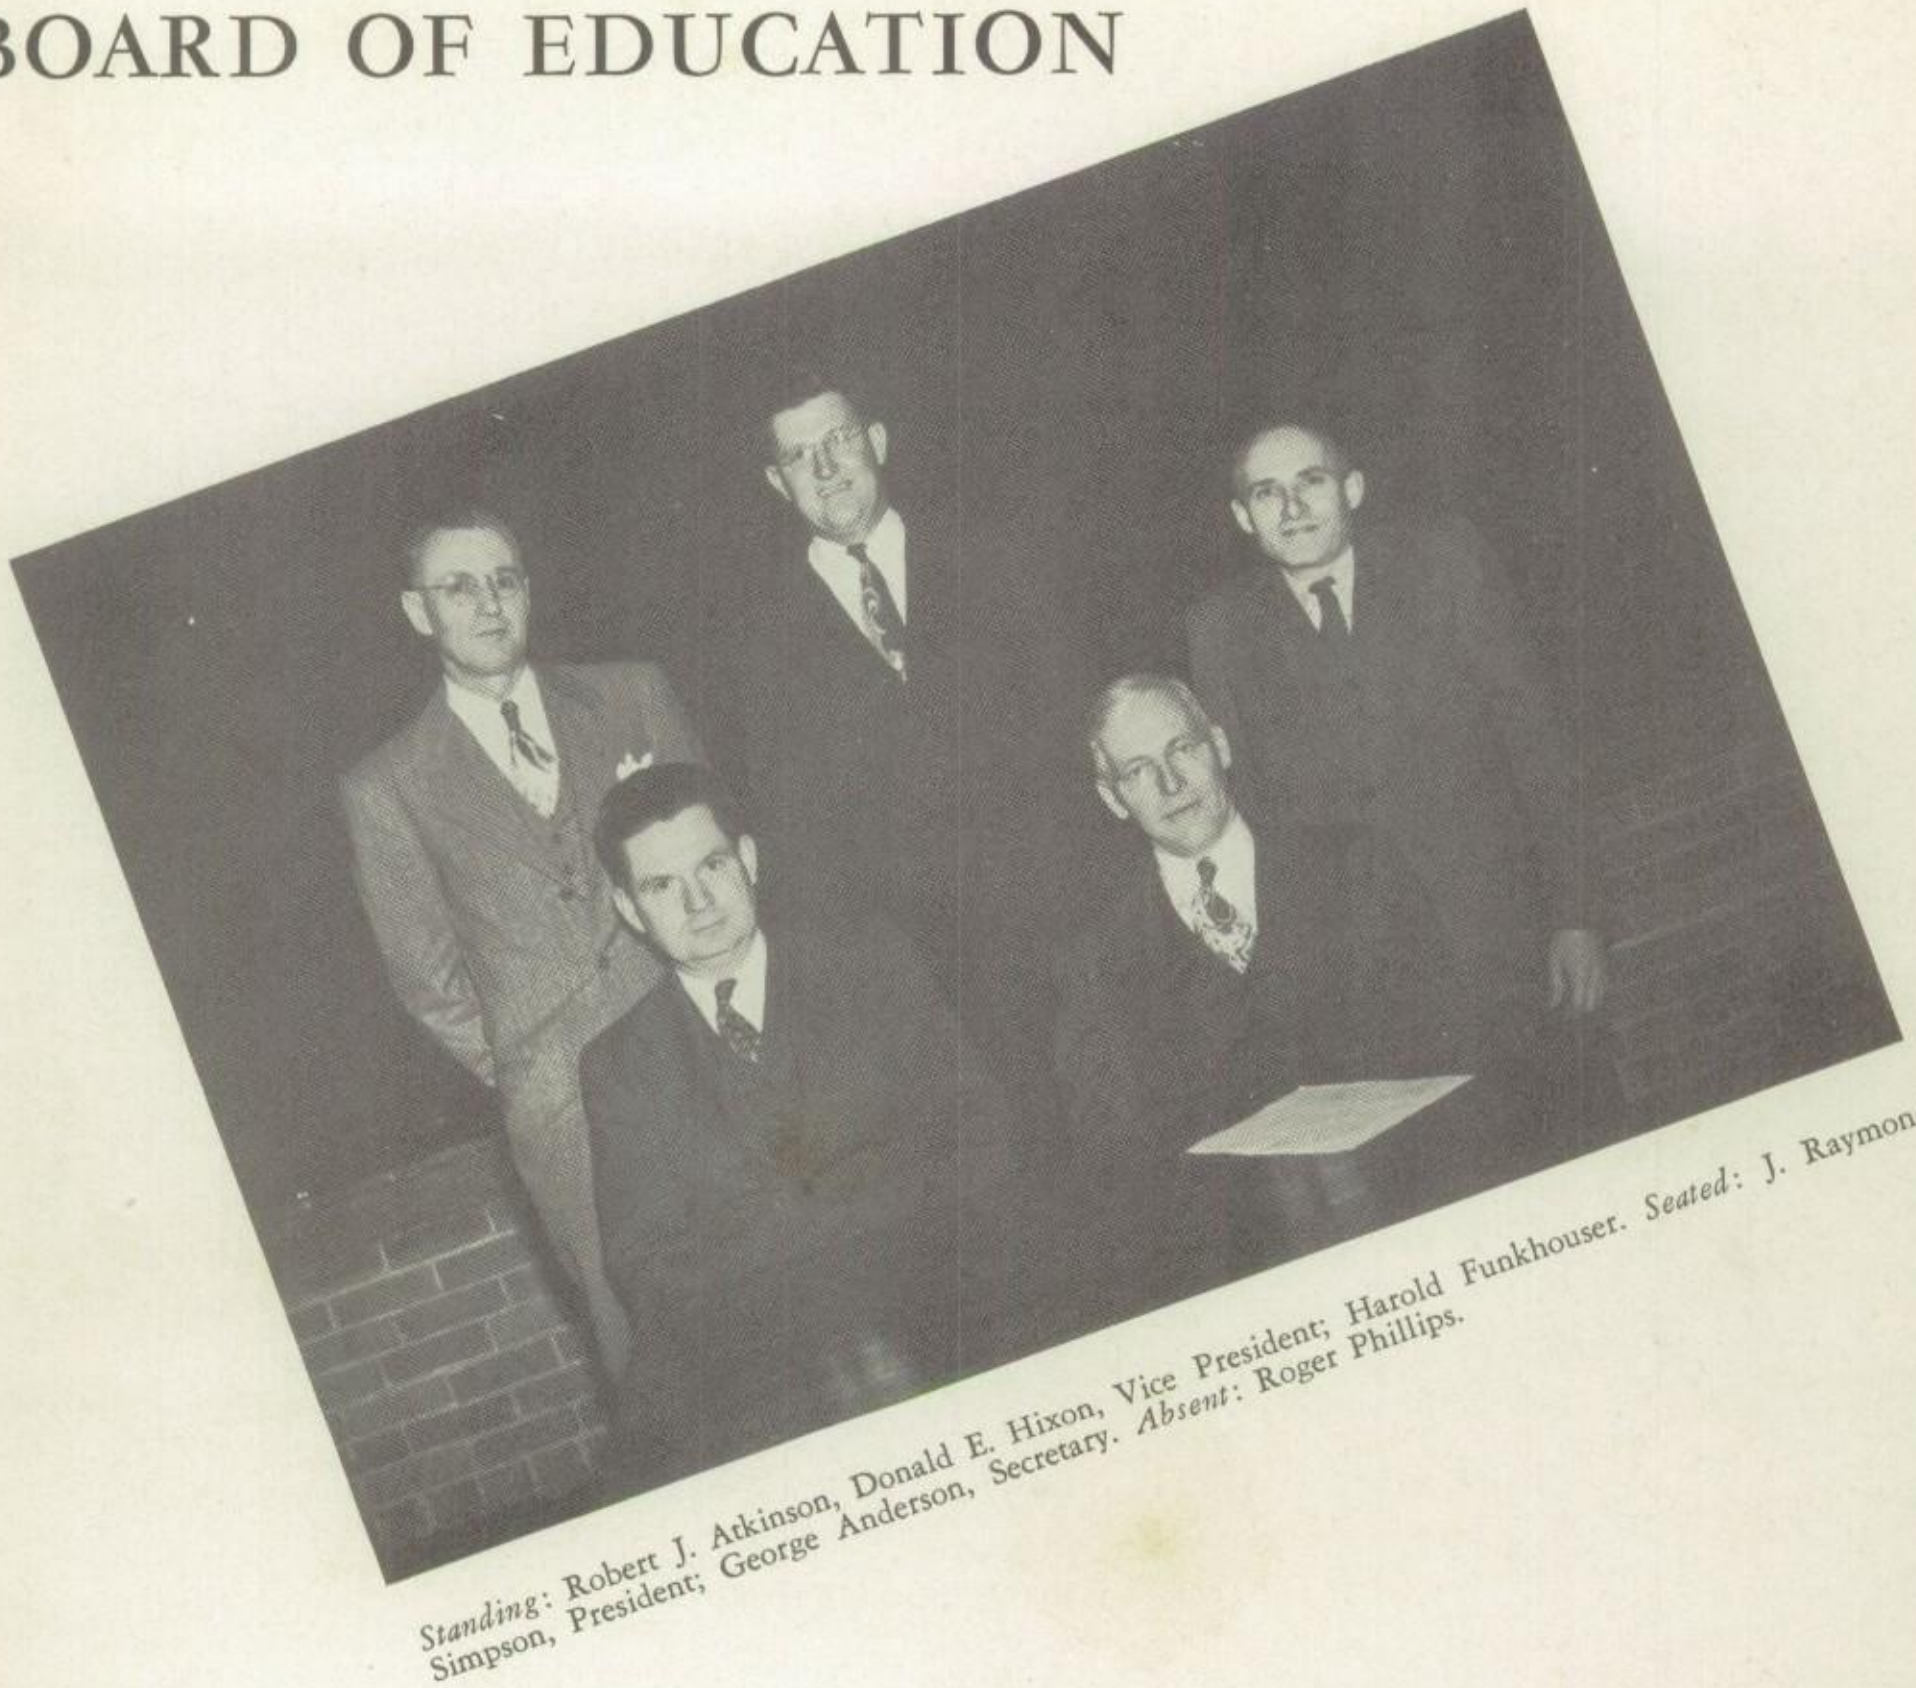
M. R.

DEDICATION

For the past four years we have profited by your teaching, and, within that period, you have greatly endeared yourself to us by your friendly character, your earnest devotion to duty, and the hearty interest you have manifested in our welfare as a class. With sincere appreciation for your guidance and instruction, we, the Class of "'50", dedicate this yearbook to you, Mr. Clyde W. Winer.

In the turning of these pages you will, we hope, be reminded of the Class of "'50", and the musical times we spent together at dear old Penn High.

BOARD OF EDUCATION



Standing: Robert J. Atkinson, Donald E. Hixon, Vice President; Harold Funkhouser. Seated: J. Raymond Simpson, President; George Anderson, Secretary. Absent: Roger Phillips.

Behind the routine of our school schedule stand many hours of work by the members of the Board of Education. These men of the community, elected by the citizens of Penn Township, have the responsibility of directing the educational program for our young people.

With the ever-growing population of an active community, and the everrising cost of operating our schools, these men must face and solve problems affecting every citizen of the community.

Without their work our program could not function. They seek the cooperation of every citizen in bringing about a well-rounded educational program.

It is with a deep sense of appreciation that we extend our thanks for their many accomplishments.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Back Row: J. Furl, D. Ketchem, R. Dittmer, Mr. Yingling, H. Voltz, R. Cooper, J. Nelson. Front Row: M. Runyan, P. Voltz, E. Kellar, S. Percy, K. Weckerly.

The council is composed of two members from each class in the high school building. The president of the class is automatically one member; the other is elected and must be of the opposite sex. The president of the seventh grade is invited to sit in on the meetings, although he holds no voting power. Mr. Yingling is our adviser.

Hubert Voltz was elected President; Eleanor Kellar, Vice President; Marylou Runyan, Secretary, and Patty Voltz, Treasurer.

The council held a Victory Dance after the basketball season was over.

The object of the council is to get the students' ideas across to the teachers and to correct student problems.

In the past the council has been a great asset to the school. We hope it continues its good work in the future.

HISTORY

When we entered Penn High in '46
A class of twenty-three strong,
We gave the teachers a very hard time
We always did everything wrong.

We paid our respects to the Senior Class
On initiation day,
We dressed up in dunce-caps and feedsacks
'Cause the Seniors had the say.

The next year as a Sophomore Class
We had a lot of fun,
There was never a dull moment
We were always on the run.

We planned a Halloween Party
With witches and goblins galore,
We also planned a Sophomore skate
Where did we land? On the floor.

We soon passed on to the Junior Class
Where we were jolly and gay,
As Juniors, we planned a great big dance
In honor of Valentine Day.

We sold refreshments at basketball games
Candy, hotdogs and pop,
Now, we're finally Seniors
We've really reached the top.

When the snow was on the tree-tops
And mistletoe hung on the wall,
To keep the Christmas spirit
We threw a big Sno-Ball.

Now it's time to say good-by
To all those happy days,
We'll soon be out in the wide, wide world
To go our separate ways.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Class of 1950, having lived the past four years in Penn Township High School, being small in body, but mighty in spirit and having lofty ambitions; realizing that we must soon depart out into the cold, cold world; do summon our last ounce of fast ebbing pep to write down our desires and wishes to be fulfilled after our departure. Being of weary mind, and fast losing our physical strength, do hereby make this our last will and testament.

We hereby declare all previous remarks, bookmarks, chalk marks, question marks, low marks, Groucho Marx, and pox marks to be laundry-marked and all washed up.

I, Mary Alice Minor, will my sense of humor to Mr. Hubner.

I, Eleanor Kellar, will my basketball ability to Pat Steighner.

I, Blanche Hughes, will my diary to Mrs. White's library.

I, Charlene Marsh, will my headaches as Editor to Marylou Runyan.

I, Phil James, will Norma Donaldson to my brother, Walter.

I, Stan Ozechouski, will my one-arm driving to Wayne Bartley.

I, Marie Wdovin, will my shyness of boys to Virginia Lawhead.

I, Bill Thompson, will my ability to be bored by women to Jim Mitchell.

I, Bob Hamilton, will my blushing complexion to George Seth.

I, Hubie Voltz, will my basketball ability to Gail Monroe.

I, Nelle Boggs, will my giggles to Pat Leseman.

I, Janet Timmons, will the Mars boy friends to Patty Voltz.

I, Dale Crowe, will my devilishness to John Weber.

I, Richard Pflugh, will my good marks to Lou Gilliland.

I, Bill Kaltenbach, will my ability to tell jokes to Mr. Winer.

I, Harold Shipe, will my girl friends from Munhall to anyone who wants them.

In witness thereof, on this seventh day of March, 1950, we hereby affix our official signature.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

It is now 1970. We see Nixon and Renfrew combined into one large town called Renix (the main suburb of Butler).

Playing at the local theatre is the leading man, BILL THOMPSON, starring in "Why Women Bore Me".

HUBIE VOLTZ is a professor at Harvard University.

The large, well-equipped hospital is on the outskirts of town where we find the former MARY ALICE MINOR, Superintendent of Nurses.

BLANCHE HUGHES, head surgical nurse, is working for her doctor's degree.

MARIE WDOVIN is the Assistant Superintendent of Nurses in the newly constructed Renix Hospital.

Lieutenant WILLIAM KALTENBACH, of the Merchant Marines, is commander of the U. S. S. Annex and we have heard he spends his leaves sitting in the balcony at the Renix Concert Hall, where he is still an admirer of the great pianist, CHARLENE MARSH, who is fulfilling a one week engagement.

At the very exclusive and elaborate night club of "Plane Site", owned by STANLEY OZECHOUSKI, is featured PETE SHIPE and his jazz band. NELLE BOGGS, now Mrs. Stock, is the English teacher at P.T.H.S.

PHIL JAMES has won the National Art Award for the outstanding artist of the century.

On North Main Street we find JANET TIMMONS working in the Home Economics Office.

ELEANOR KELLAR is now secretary to the President of Renix National Bank.

We see through the crystal ball all the homes which have been newly decorated by the great interior decorator, ROBERT HAMILTON.

RICH PFLUGH has just returned from his fiftieth trip from the wild and woolly West on his Trans-Continental truck line.

Working hard at the Renix Post Office is DALE CROWE, who is now head postmaster.

All parents and children of the Class of "'50" are looking forward to seeing the greatest "Baseball Pitcher of 1970," BILL THOMPSON, at Renix Field. He is now in his prime, playing for the New York Yankees.

HISTORY

When we returned to school in September, we were placed under the guidance of Mrs. Keith White. We organized and elected class officers.

During our Freshman year we got a good start on the road to success as a class. We sponsored a skate at Evans City, sold emblems and were active in baseball and basketball.

Our Sophomore year followed the same pattern. We sponsored another skate, several bake sales and the Halloween Dance of the year. This dance was one of our foremost successes.

As Juniors we proceeded to live up to our reputation of past years. Our boys and girls have been active in sports and cheerleadering this year. We sponsored another skate, and a Valentine Hop on the eleventh of February with Tony Carroll's Orchestra. Every year it is the privilege of the Junior Class to sell refreshments at all the home basketball games, which helps us raise funds for our class treasury.

HISTORY

When we returned to school in September, we found Room 2 to be our home room and Mr. Hubner our home room teacher and adviser. We held our first class meeting shortly after and elected our class officers.

As Freshmen we had sold beanies to raise money, sponsored a skate at Twin Willows, held a bake sale and were active in all school activities.

We have continued as Sophomores to take part in all school functions. Several boys of our class are on the basketball and baseball teams, and our girls are active on the girls' team. Three of our girls are cheerleaders. The main event of the year was the Halloween Party which our class sponsored. We felt that it was a big success. We have made progress in a project to encourage good sportsmanship in the school.

HISTORY

The class of '53 entered Penn High School September 19, 1949. We were very eager, and no less able, until the night of initiation, on September 30. It was a wonderful and exciting night which started the real life of our high school days.

We entered Penn High with forty-one students. Mr. White is our class adviser.

We have contributed to the Junior Red Cross, March of Dimes, Cancer Fund and T. B. Drive. We also helped in sending CARE packages at Christmas.

In the course of our classes we have gone to the Fire Hall to see the fire equipment and also to see the process of voting.

In Civics we had Sgt. Paul A. Rittelmann of the State Police who talked to us on juvenile delinquency.

Eighth Grade Portrays the Faculty in Assembly Program

HISTORY

The twenty-five members of the seventh grade class carried on many activities under the leadership of Mrs. Mildred Gallentine. We had a Halloween party, a tea for our Mothers and a farewell party for Walter Faull. We took part in many school activities and also published a newspaper, "The Short Circuit."

On September 1, 1949, twenty members of the eighth grade class met in Room 1 of the High School, and were greeted by our teacher, Mrs. Laverne Walker. We elected our class officers. Our two representatives to Student Council are Shirley Percy and Ronald Cooper. We have contributed to many different activities as the March of Dimes, Junior Red Cross, T. B. Fund, and CARE. We also took an interesting trip to Butler and visited the Butler Eagle Plant, Radio Station WBUT, the Butler County Jail and Mellon Bank.

Our next step is ninth grade. (We hope.)

Donaldson, G. Cooper, P. Albert, A. Groth, N. Runyan, S. Murray, Mrs. Stanfield.

HISTORY

There are nineteen girls and eighteen boys in the Seventh Grade. Of this number ten came from Renfrew School, six from Logan School and one from Meridian. The remaining twenty attended the Nixon School. Mrs. Stanfield is our teacher.

We are all anxious to take part in as many activities as possible and are glad we have so many opportunities.

Two of our girls, Alice Cashdollar and Nancy Percy, are cheerleaders. Several of our boys have been practicing and playing on Junior Varsity Team. We are very much interested in our girls' and boys' basketball teams. Fourteen members of our class are in Junior Chorus.

We have had several social activities including a Halloween Party and a Christmas Program. We were very happy to be included in the Christmas Party in the high school. We are enjoying the movies and assemblies which we are attending for the first this year.

Recently we visited the local fire station and had the use of the fire fighting equipment explained to us by Mr. Greenawalt. This was very helpful in our science when we were studying about fire extinguishers.

NOON DANCES

CLUBS

ART

Penn Township High School is not without its artists; and a very talented and enthusiastic group they are.

Thirty-three students have elected Art as an extra subject. Under the able supervision of Mrs. Eleanor Greene, this group carried on a program of both arts and handicraft. This class uses Room 1 for its studio with a forty-five minute period each Wednesday or Friday.

The year began by doing freehand sketches in pastels of the gorgeous fall scenes surrounding the school and the nearby homes. Portraits in pencil technique were done from life in the next project. For the holiday season both classes designed and printed their own Christmas cards, cut from scraps of linoleum. One girl in the class brought an old-fashioned hand-operated clothes wringer and this was used for a press. Lettering and pen and ink work was the next subject. Everyone learned the proper use of a variety of lettering pens and several ink techniques.

Due to the limited amount of time in school for art classes, the students do a lot of extra work as home work. The ambitious artists are brave enough to tackle most any form of creative expression. This might be anything from a landscape in oils to a leather billfold.

The art work is not confined to the fine artist alone but also the craftsman.

One of the most interesting annual activities planned for the spring season was the visit to the annual Scholastic Exhibition at Carnegie Museum.

Another project which we have started is painting and redecorating the walls of Penn High School. We feel that this will be an excellent proof of the practical application of our art training.

MUSIC

Our music department is organized in four main groups—Mixed Chorus, Boys' Chorus, Girls' Chorus and Junior Chorus. Each of these choruses meets twice a week to rehearse and study music theory. The crowded conditions in the building and the heavy schedule make it difficult for many special smaller groups to practice, however, we did manage to organize a special ensemble and a girls' sextet.

Various choruses have made public appearances in assembly programs, Community Day program, the Senior Play, Spring Festival, Commencement and Baccalaureate.

The goal of every music student is to earn a music letter by the end of the term. Each student is rated under the honor point system which checks conduct in class and gives credit for all accomplishments in music. If this rating is satisfactory, the student is considered for a music letter.

DRAMATICS

Dramatics in our school is under the direction of Mrs. Keith White. The main production usually is held in the early part of the school year when the Senior Class presents its annual play. Shorter plays are presented during the year in assemblies by the English classes.

Scenes from the Senior Play, "The Haunted High School."

THE PENN BROADCASTER

On January 6, 1950, the Seniors got together and organized a staff to put to press again "The Penn Broadcaster." Each member of our class was given a position on the staff and members of the Junior Class were chosen as assistants.

By January 23, the paper was well underway. Everyone worked hard and was very willing to contribute news, jokes, pictures and other materials.

The grade school also became interested so we decided to have a page for them. A reporter was chosen from each grade to gather the news from his or her home room. A deadline was set for all material to be given to the editor which was January 30.

Our first issue was put out on February 14. Approximately 200 copies of the paper were sold as our first edition.

We exchanged copies of our paper with other schools and received compliments from each school. Teachers and students of our own school congratulated us on our work which we appreciated very much.

Our paper consists of news from all departments of the school. Contributions were made by the English, Music, Art, Sports and Commercial Departments.

The "Penn Broadcaster" staff put out only three editions this year. Next year we hope to have an issue every six weeks.

"It Sez We're The Underdogs!"

Early last fall the staff of our yearbook decided to sponsor a photo contest in order to increase interest in presentation of pictures by the students to be used in "The Penn." The rules of the contest were set up and it got underway October 24.

Although many photos were handed in, there were few contestants. The most active participant was Gail Monroe. The contest ended March 2 and an impartial committee was asked to choose the winning picture. The committee consisted of one senior, Eleanor Kellar, one junior, Ronald Stephens, Mrs. Staudacher and Miss Kennedy.

Two prizes were to be given to the winners. However, since Gail Monroe presented the first-prize and second-prize pictures, it was decided by the committee that only one prize was to be given.

Although the High School league was disbanded, the Penn High Baseball Team played a very successful exhibition schedule; winning four, losing one and having one contest rained out. The coaching post was in the very capable hands of Mr. Keith White, who turned in an excellent job.

The season opener on Monday, September 26, was a freescoring skirmish with Penn winning the see-saw battle, 12-11 over West Sunbury. Behind by one run in the final round, the locals quickly sewed up the decision with three consecutive no-out, two-base smashes by Mitchell, Voltz and Thompson. A triple and two doubles by Thompson, and a triple, double and single by Voltz gave both boys a "3 for 4" mark to lead the hitters.

With Chicora at bat and ahead 1-0 in the top of the first, a terrific downpour washed the Penn-Chicora game off the books.

September 30 was a day that Bill Thompson won't soon forget. It was then, on the Harrisville diamond, that the lanky southpaw hurled his second no-run, no-hit game of the year and the first of his high school career, 2-0. Paul Bowers's two hits topped the 5-hit total garnered by the winners off Lefty Red Davis who fanned 14 men. Big Bill struck out 15. Daring base-running by Hubie Voltz, who scampered home from third on an unsuspecting infielder, brought about the first tally. The second marker scored on Lou Gilliland's single, and sacrifices by Phil James and Ron Stephens.

Traveling to Chicora four days later, the Gold and Blue routed that club, 13-5. Bowers with 2 singles, also featured the 11-hit attack.

On October 10, the Penn diamond was the scene of an exciting battle between West Sunbury and Penn. This game was climaxed by Bowers' base-loaded single in the last of the ninth inning. This extra inning clash was won by Penn, 4-3. Phil James paced the hitters with 3 singles in four trips.

The locals dropped their final game at West Sunbury by a 19-4 drubbing. The Sunbury Team got 14 runs in the first and were never headed. Lee Allen struck out 10 and scattered 4 hits for the winners who collected 10 hits and 12 walks from three Penn pitchers.

Ironically, this was almost a duplicate of the 1948 finale with Worthington. However, this should offer a real challenge to the team in the 1950 season. Penn and West Sunbury were the only county high school teams in 1949 with no more than one loss. Penn's 3-year baseball record, 16 wins and 5 losses, is a very impressive record.

HAIL TO THE GOLDEN PANTHERS!

Certainly there are no words which can completely express the admiration, gratitude and pride that the people of Penn Township and Butler County had for the Penn High Basketball Team of the 1949-50 season—Champions of District Nine.

They had a 17-7 record in contrast to the 23-3 of the previous team. They lost three games in Class C, while the 1948-49 club went unbeaten in Class C competition. They permitted their opponents an average of 37.9 points per game, while the Regional Champs held their opponents (which included the State Class A Catholic Champions whom they played twice) to an average of only 32.5 points per game.

To Mr. White, coach, friend and inspirational force behind the team, we would render due thanks. Here is a man who has done much for our school. The team would like to express its gratitude to all those who aided, encouraged and stuck with them during the season. This spirit of friendly cooperation between players, coaches, managers and fans is unequalled anywhere.

The Penn boys got off on the right foot this year, defeating Winfield on December 6, by a tidy margin, 44-28. High scorer of the contest was Voltz with 14 points.

Friday, December 9, Penn traveled to East Brook and absorbed their first defeat in a 61-43 rout. The visiting Penn Team could not overcome the terrific height of the home quintet. Walker and Voltz supplied the one-two scoring punch with 14 and 13 points, respectively.

On December 13 the locals got back into their winning stride by overcoming Mars, 37-25. This was a tight skirmish until the second half when Penn took a commanding lead to finish going away.

Penn traveled to West Sunbury in their league opener on December 16 and won a very easy game, 66-10. West Sunbury found Penn's Big Bill Thompson unstopable as he tossed in 14 field goals for 28 points.

December 20, playing on their home floor, the Panthers played listless ball in losing to Evans City, 48-42. Penn staged a late rally, but Evans City's lead was too great to overcome. Bill Thompson led the scorers with 16 points.

On December 23 Penn showed a poor brand of basketball in defeating Bruin, 35-21. Penn had trouble with their ball handling and shots during the whole contest, but were never in danger of losing the game. Dick Walker played an excellent floor game as well as supplying 13 tallies to lead the scoring.

December 27 saw Penn go down in defeat at the hands of the powerful East Brook Five, but in a much closer battle than was staged on the visitors' floor. This was a thriller from the start with the final score reading 35-32. Voltz led for Penn High with 11 points.

The Golden Panthers lost their second straight game December 30 to Evans City, 38-37. After leading the entire second half, the locals lost in the last 3 seconds on a foul conversion by Carey. Again, Voltz led the local scorers with 13 tallies.

On January 6 Penn traveled to Worthington and won their third straight league game. The score was 54-35; the Penn hoopsters showing accuracy from all corners of the floor with Walker tossing in 17 markers toward the win.

January 10, Penn played host to Hampton, a Class B power, who, last year, was a section winner. Penn came out on top in this game, 50-44, showing the best brand of ball exhibited all year. Once more Dick Walker led the scoring with 14 points.

The Penn boy's dispelled old superstitions when they walloped Chicora, 52-31, on Friday the 13th. Penn's "man to man" defense showed itself to good advantage in this game. Nineteen tallies for Walker led all scorers.

On January 20 Penn defeated Harrisville, 58-48, in a fast-moving, high-scoring game. It was the fifth league win for the locals against no defeats and marked the half-way point in Penn's league campaign. Bill Thompson and Dick Walker featured for Penn with 21 and 19 points, respectively.

The Panthers encountered a weak West Sunbury quintet on January 24 and won easily, 53-32. This was another high-scoring game with the locals going over the 50 mark for the fifth straight game. Don Ketchem showed promise of future greatness with a nineteen point scoring effort coupled with a fine floor game.

BILL THOMPSON, Center
Senior

January 27 was a sad night for the Penn boys, as they went down to defeat before a comparatively weak Bruin team, 36-35. The less said about this game the better as this was one of the worst games the Penn boys played in quite some time. Bill Thompson accounted for half the locals' total to lead all scorers.

February 3, the Penn Panthers got back in the winning stride; defeating Worthington in a home tilt, 46-43. Worthington showed with an improved ball club and gave the Penn boys considerable trouble. Walker led the scorers with 16 tallies.

The Gold and Blue traveled to Hampton on February 7 and defeated their well-matched opponents, 47-36. The game was much closer than indicated and was hard fought all the way. Walker and Kozak tangled for individual honors with Walker coming out on top 22-20.

The Golden Panthers lost their second league game of the year on February 10 to Chicora by a six-point margin, 53-47. This game backed Penn into the position of section winner as Harrisville bowed for the second time to Worthington. Walker was the big gun in Penn's attack, with 18 points.

February 14, Penn Township downed Slippery Rock, 58-40, overcoming the terrific height of the visitors. Penn looked like a smoothly geared machine in this game; every cog of which fell right in line for the victory. Thompson and Walker equalled Slippery Rock's scoring output with Thompson accounting for 22 of the tallies.

On February 17 the last league game of the year was played against Harrisville and did not mean much as Penn already had the section clinched. Penn took an early lead but weakened in the third canto as the Bulldogs forged ahead. The locals had to go all out to defeat the home team, 38-36, on their tiny floor. Thompson's 12 points paced the scoring for Penn.

Finally, the big day arrived! At precisely eight o'clock, Friday night, March 3, Referee Tony Senapole walked to midcourt and tossed the ball skyward to start the 1950 Class C Championship Game. The opponent was the Karns City Gremlins, unbeaten in 20 games, and an odds on favorite to win in view of the condition of forward, Dick Walker, who had three abscessed teeth pulled four days before the game and had missed about ten days of practice because of the malady. Hubie Voltz gave Penn a 1-0 lead at the outset. Captain Bob McElravy then connected on a long one-hand push-shot to put the Gremlins in front, 2-1. Unknown to the fans at the time, this was the last time Coach Sutliff's boys were destined to lead, Voltz, Ketchem and Walker scored for Penn, and Karns City called time out with Penn leading, 7-2. Foul shots by Geibel and Bishop made it 7-4 at the quarter. With the Panthers missing their shots and playing an unsteady floor game, Karns City came back to tie it up, 8-8. Two buckets and a free throw by Art Daubenspeck gave Penn a 13-8 edge. Karns City then narrowed it to 13-12, but Hubie Voltz hit on a side court push-shot to give Penn a 15-12 half-time margin. A successful fast break by Penn broke the game wide open in the third quarter. With Walker and Voltz each hitting twice, Penn widened the gap to 26-17 in the early part of the quarter. Then the big break came. Karns City, needing points desperately, started playing a wide open brand of ball. This necessitated their opening up of the 1-3-1 defense which they were using in an attempt to shut off Thompson from the scoring column. This enabled the Penn guards to feed the tall center, who then connected on three straight push-shots and a free throw to give Penn a tremendous 33-19 lead. It was 35-20 at the end of the third quarter. The lead shifted between 15 and 20 points during the last quarter until the last forty seconds. With Walker and Thompson out on personals, the Gremlins tossed in four buckets in those fleeting moments to make the final count 49-42; not a true picture of the game which was on the order of a rout. When the final buzzer sounded, the players rushed as one man to Coach Keith White and carried him off the floor on their shoulders; a real tribute to a hard-working coach. Four Penn players hit double figures, with the points distributed as follows: Thompson 14, Walker 12, Voltz 10 and Daubenspeck 10. This game shall remain ever as a living example of what hard work and determination will do.

The Golden Panthers moved on to the semi-finals where they eliminated the Shippenville Wildcats in an odd game, 44-38. The locals showed terrific drive and smoothness as they piled up an incredible lead of 18-7 at the quarter and vaulted to a 29-14 margin at the half. Walker's 10 points paced the first half scoring. Then the Panthers, who had sunk their first three shots of the game, started to miss. Penn still had a safe lead of 34-21 at the three-quarter point. They built the margin to 40-25 early in the final period and had a safe 42-30 lead as the official time out arrived. With Detar and Barrett pacing the attack, the Wildcats narrowed it to 42-38 with less than two minutes to go. Penn's defense then settled to shut out the Clarion County quintet the rest of the way. Foul shots by Walker and Voltz sewed up the verdict at 44-38, and Penn advanced to the District Nine finals.

The local team then moved from Slippery Rock College, scene of their first two title games, to the Brookville High Court to face the Sheffield Wolverines in the District Nine Championship game on the following Saturday. Sheffield broke away fast to a 6-1 lead at the start. Penn staged a rally, however, to lead 12-10 at the quarter. A foul shot by Don Ketchem, a field goal by Dick Walker, and three more foul conversions by Ketchem gave Penn an 18-12 lead midway in the second period. The Warren Countians then pulled in front, 19-18, as the intermission arrived. With Francis Wagner, flashy Sheffield forward chalking up 7 points in the third frame, the Wolverines built their lead to 29-26 as the fourth quarter arrived. Voltz scored for Penn on a short push-shot and tied the count shortly afterward with a free throw. The buckets by the Wolverines sent Penn behind by a 33-30 margin. A free throw by Bill Thompson and a long set-shot by Hubie Voltz tied the count at 33-33. Art Daubenspeck whipped in a bucket for Penn, and Sheffield called their fifth time out of the game. Using a beautiful block play, Francis Wagner drove in to tie it up 35-35 at the official period. Dick Walker then laid a rebound up on the boards, and Penn was ahead 37-35. With 2:20 left, Walker left the game on personals, a tough blow for Penn. Cederloff sank a free throw for Sheffield, but Phil James dropped in a foul shot for the Panthers, and Penn led, 38-36. Once again Wagner broke loose to tie it up at 38-38 with 1:13 left in the game. With only 1:02 left to play, Voltz sank a short push-shot as he cut in from the left corner, and it was 40-38, Penn. With but 50 seconds remaining, that man, Wagner, got loose again to knot the game at 40-40. The teams continued to wage a terrific battle before the madly cheering throng as the fateful seconds ticked away. With less than 30 seconds to go, Penn took the ball out of bounds and attempted to work it in. With about 10 seconds remaining in the game, Junior Art Daubenspeck raced into the foul line, reached back to snare a pass, and twisting as he brought the ball upward, leaped high in the air and released a short push-shot toward the rim. The ball floated toward the hoop, coming to rest momentarily as it landed softly in the nets, and fell to the floor amid a deafening roar from the crowd, and the Panthers were ahead, 42-40. But, the Wolverines, not through yet, brought the ball up court and passed in to Wagner who drove toward the hoop. However, he was fouled on his shot and shaken up slightly. There were but 4 seconds left as he toed the line for two shots. Penn fans fidgeted nervously as his two hands raised in a graceful arc toward the basket. They gasped in awe as the ball struck the back of the rim and bounded out. The second try cut the cords cleanly and the score was 42-41. The Warren County club had one more chance. They took the ball out of bounds in one final effort to score and Wagner got one more shot at the bucket. It missed and Penn's Bill Thompson grabbed the rebound and held it as the final buzzer sounded to give Penn a 42-41 win, and their second straight District Nine crown. Walker and Voltz led Penn with 11 and 10, respectively. Thompson rebounded well in the last quarter Penn drive. In addition to a great floor game, Voltz sparked Penn in the last quarter rally with 7 points. Daubenspeck also displayed a good floor game in that late drive. But, the win would have been impossible without Don Ketchem's aggressive floor game and sensational foul shooting; he sank 7 out of 8 tries. Well done, boys.

The season came to an abrupt end the night of Tuesday, March 14, at the Slippery Rock College Gym. The powerful Fredonia Vocationals tripped the Panthers by a 63-44 final score and went on to whip Southmont, 53-42, to dethrone Penn Township as the Western Regional Champions. Charles Craig, smooth working Vocat pivotman, who had a game average of 20.6 up to the Penn game, lived up to advance notices as he hit for 2 points in a little more than 3 quarters. Fredonia's two speedy forwards scored 30 points between them, many on fast breaks. Penn, behind 6-1 at the start, shot ahead by 11-7 and 13-9 scores to lead 13-11 at the quarter, Fredonia spurted in front 20-15, but led by only 25-21 at the intermission. They stretched the margin to 27-21 at the start of the third, but the Jungle Cats again took the lead, 30-29, on two fielders by Walker and one each by Thompson and Voltz. Fredonia, aided by a great fast break, staged a scoring burst, here, to pull in front, 40-30. The Panthers were fighting gamely to stay in the battle when an incident occurred which changed the whole course of the game. With the score at 42-32, Fredonia's Hause was driving in for a lay-up; Penn's Dick Walker racing downcourt about two strides behind him. In desperation, the Penn forward tagged the speedy Hause. The Vocat player did not fall, nor was he hurt in the least. Yet, Referee Dunlavy, in a burst of temper, grabbed Walker by the arms and "roughed him up" as he pushed him toward the Penn bench and ejected him for "unsportsmanlike conduct." Without Walker, the Penn team was no match for the District 10 powerhouse. Fredonia then romped to a 60-37 lead late in the game, and then sent the subs in. Bill Thompson completed his Penn High career by leading the scorers with 15. Walker had 13 at the time of his hasty exit early in the fourth quarter.

Thus, another Penn High Championship season was written into history. With the season's end, Penn bids farewell to two of the greatest players in the school's history—Bill Thompson and Hubie Voltz. Also leaving are Phil James and Stan Ozechouski.

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL

Second Half Tip-off—Fredonia

A new rung has been added to Penn's basketball ladder this year in the form of an intramural league. This proved highly successful in giving everyone an opportunity to participate in basketball. This league will undoubtedly form the basis for Penn's teams in future. The games were played during the noon hours following the boys' gym classes on Mondays and Wednesdays. Besides the sportsmanship taught, entertainment was provided, and school spirit was formed by the good clean competition between the teams.

With our new coach, Mr. Karl Yingling, and our new gold and royal satin basketball uniforms, we girls got underway to a season of exciting games.

Our opponents gave us a hard time, rough and tough to add to the interest, but we always tried to keep fighting and kept our spirits high.

With ten games scheduled, Chicora was our first match, followed by Mars, Cathedral, Evans City and Harrisville.

Eleanor Kellar, our captain, Anna Marie Hallock and Diana Stepanovich all did a splendid job of scoring and Mary Alice Minor, Barbara Jansce and Audrey Pflugh all put up a good fight and were excellent guards.

The Junior Varsity, assisted by Mr. White, showed favorable participation in practices and also competing with Mars. Playing on the main team were Patty Voltz (captain), Ruth Murray, Peggy McCafferty, Arian Smith, Ruth Pflugh and Donna Hamilton.

Our thanks go to Mr. Yingling for his time spent with us during gym periods and practices after school. His presence was appreciated greatly by all of us, for without him, we would have had no team at all. So thanks a lot for all you've done for us, Coach!

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

The Varsity Cheerleaders were chosen in the latter part of October. The three cheerleaders of last year, Janet Timmons, Joan Voelkel, and Barbara Jansce with the assistance of a faculty committee chose Patty Voltz, Arian Smith and Shirley George to complete the sextet.

Striking uniforms were purchased for the season by the athletic association. They consist of blue corduroy skirts and jackets lined with gold taffeta. The letters are on the back of the jackets.

Practices were held intermittently with gym classes and also any other period in which the gym was available.

The squad has worked out many unique ideas and have been classed as a most original group in their performances.

The girls were ably assisted this season by Mrs. Staudacher and Mrs. White.

JUNIOR VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

The Junior Varsity Cheerleaders were chosen in the latter part of October by the Varsity Squad and a committee of teachers. Three of the squad from last year were chosen again, plus three new ones.

The J. V.'s first appeared before the student body in their new uniforms on December 2 at a pep meeting and that night before the public at the Pep Dance.

We enjoyed the Friday night games and the championship games, and considered it a privilege to be included.

Although the Junior Varsity is a relatively new group in Penn High, they are gradually earning a good reputation for themselves.

The following girls are members: Alice Cashdollar, Nancy Percy, Shirley Percy, Margaret Howard, Donna Hamilton and Martha Wible.

RETROSPECT

REMEMBER WHEN:

Mr. Hubner became a "changed man" because he decided to have a study period in World History Class.

Laura Walker rolled an egg across the stage with her nose.

Patty Voltz, with Virginia Lawhead's red sweater hanging on her uniform, ran out on the floor to cheer at the Mars game.

Mr. James's bus load got to watch the "necking show" (coming home from the Shippenville game) that was going on in the back of Smitty's bus.

Mr. Yingling gave Mr. Winer study hall because he yelled "Boo" in the girls' gym class.

Harold Shipe first came to our school and the girls soon helped him overcome his bashfulness.

The Championship games were played at Slippery Rock and Brookville.

All the Senior Play Rehearsals. The fun we had ! ! !

Mr. Winer was listening to the Mixed Chorus sing and said, "Oh! It sounds awful."

Uncle Red got his television set.

The eighth-graders impersonated the teachers.

Dale Crowe tried to drink pop standing on his head.

Mr. and Mrs. White had two "kids".

The Junior boys had to have a pipe for play rehearsal.

We had the Pep Dance—Alice Cashdollar and Bill Thompson.

Lou Gilliland dressed as a girl basketball player in assembly.

The firecracker went off in Room 3.

Mary Alice hated to see it snow because Charles wouldn't come home.

The girls' basketball team got their new uniforms. Oui-la-la!!

The epidemic of sore throats and bad colds always following a Championship game.

Mr. Yingling became a proud "Grand Pappy."

The "Truth or Consequences" show.

Mr. Hubner was trying to teach music "The Star-Spangled Banner" instead of American History.

The girls had a tea party during third periods in Room 4.

Patty Steighner got a "gift" from the Sophomore girls.

The Junior girls tried to find a little excitement and ended up in Mrs. White's study hall.

Mr. Winer would say, "It's coming", in Music Class.

The girls had to play with their coats on at Evans City.

Mr. Hubner told Mary Alice she was invited to spend lunch hour with him, and she said, "What if I don't want to accept the invitation?"

The Seniors decorated for the Sno-Ball. How Ronnie and Charles helped????

Five certain girls went swimming in Thorn Creek, (in their newly designed bathing suits).

Mr. Yingling was going to be a "Justice of the Peace" when he retired but decided against it when his wife told him he would give very little justice and get no peace.

The Student Council went to the convention at Slippery Rock.

Mr. Hubner tried to make Paul Bowers do twenty-five push-ups in World History Class.

The opening of school was prolonged because of Polio.

COMMERCIAL TRAINING

Does Not Mean Merely Shorthand, Typewriting, Bookkeeping

These are important parts of our complete business training courses, but they are only the foundations.

At the Butler Business College you are trained not only in the fundamentals of business but in many of its larger problems, too: secretarial work, higher accounting, legal problems, business correspondence—courses which will create a market for your services; courses which will help you to secure good positions, and courses which will help you to grow. Free employment service given to graduates.
